

Name: Jamuna Bhandari

Class: 10

School: Asmita English School

Tour to: Pokhara

Date: 2 November to 4 November

Objectives:

Thank you to all who helped us to attend the tour to pokhara.

We really had a wonderful time in pokhara.

Methodology:

For our study we applied different methods to collect the informations. We used primary method well as secondary method. As primary we visited ourself in different parts of pokhara and collected information. As a secondary method we got

Title of study: Visit to pokhara

Introduction:

Recently, we got chance to visit pokhara as an educational tour in the presence of our social teacher and other teachers too. Pokhara lies in western development region and it is also headquarter of wdr. It is almost 200 km from kathmandu.

Objectives:

We had following objectives of our study.

1. To see the natural beauty of pokhara.
2. To study the geographical structure, caves, gorge as well as rivers and lake.

Methodology:

For our study we applied different methods to collect the informations. We used primary method well as secondary method. As primary we visited ourself in different parts of pokhara and collected information. As a secondary method we got information from different people.

Finding:

We arrived pokhara in the evening almost at 5:30 pm. We found it is like a valley. At first we went to Begnas lake. It look as if it was ocean. We had not seen such a big lake before. We found there the wall that was constructed to protect the village down of it. Thereafter, we went to hotel. Almost at 8 pm in the evening we went to lakeside, while walking in the street of lakeside, we felt as if we were in Europe. The shops were well decorated and mostly the people were from other countries. We also went to see the sun rise in the morning. We saw many beautiful mountains like fishtail, Annapurna and Phaulgiri. We went to see ~~the~~ peace stupa. We went to see various caves like bat cave, mahendra cave. We also saw devis fall which was really Amazing. We had really great time in Pokhara.

Conclusion:

As a conclusion, we can say that pokhara is one of the world's best place which is very beautiful and attractive. Everyone of us must visit pokhara at least once in our lifetime.